Hotel Rate Sign Display to be Banned

Council Accepts Recommendation of Hotel Association

In a move designed to maintain and even strengthen the reputation of Palm Springs as a high class resort city, council Tuesday evening reintroduced its sign ordinance amendment in a more stringent form.

The new provision, which was asked by the Hotel and Apartment association, provides for the banning of any hotel or apartment rate sign which could be seen from the property line of the place involved. This would require that all rate signs be placed inside, and then not in a location where they could be seen from the outside.

Only opposition to the inclusion of this regulation came from James D. and Mary E. Carlin, owners of Hotel El Tram, 2525 North Palm Canyon drive, who told of experiencing a large increase in business since installation of a rate sign.

Adele Colgan, president of the Hotel and Apartment association, said that rate signs were not necessary to attract business. "We do not want Palm Springs to look like a bargain counter," she said. "We are proud of being known as America's Foremost Desert Resort, and we want to keep it that way."

Councilwoman Ruth Hardy commented that the caliber of the "town was not built on that type of merchandising," and Mayor Florian Boyd said that rate signs were not in character with the way "we are trying to develop the community."

POLICE TO CONTINUE TRAFFIC CRACKDOWN

Traffic enforcement program of the Palm Springs Police department will continue to be "firm" throughout the summer months in an effort to reduce the number of accidents occurring in the Village, Chief August G. Kettmann announced this week.

The policy of stricter enforcement was started during May, when the accident ratio showed an increase. An increased number of citations was issued during the month in an effort to slow the increase.

There were 23 accidents last month, compared to 14 during the same time last year. Of these, 13 involved only property damage, and 10 injury.

Only one accident has been recorded in June to date, and that occurred on the first day of the month.

"We are issuing an increased number of citations in an effort to cut the disregard for regulations back to a safe level," Kettmann said in explaining the policy.

"We will continue to be firm even though the summer is coming on, and this is usually a period of generally relaxed enforcement. During the summer period we should not have any accidents as the traffic is lighter, and in most cases the visibility is good. This means that accidents are caused by driver failure."

4 to 3 Vote Decides Fate of Proposal

40.25 Percent of Property Owners Protest District

A divided city council took a historic step in the history of Palm Springs Tuesday evening —establishing the Village's first vehicle parking district.

The vote to overrule all protests and to establish the first off-street parking area was 4 to 3, with Mayor Florian Boyd, Ruth Hardy, Frank Miller and Earle Strebe in favor, and Ted McKinney, Jerry Nathanson and Jerry Sanborn casting negatives.

FOLLOWING THIS action, a final peace offering was given Mutual Enterprises, Inc., upon recommendation of the property owners involved in the district's establishment. It provides for the planning commission to set up hearings on an ordinance amendment which would alleviate parking requirements for abutting property to a parking district.

But A. M. Liebling, president of Mutual Enterprises, didn't accept the move in a conciliatory manner. Continuing the attack he started during the public hearing, he charged that city council had gotten "cold feet already" in regard to the district.

FOUR PROTESTS were presented at the hearing against establishment of the initial parking district, including three from original signers of the petition, which asked the city to initiate the parking district action.

Protesting the action by letter were: Oasis Hotel, C. G. Lykken, The Desert Inn and Mutual Enterprises. The property they own forms 40.25 percent of the total area covered by the district.

George Roberson explained The Desert Inn's reversal of position as due to the recently announced sale of the property. Jerry Nathanson, who with Hy Fink was a broker in the purchase of The Desert Inn, said that he had received a telegram from Arnold Grant which said that the pledge of present owners of The Desert Inn property to participate in the district "would not be binding on the new owners," and that the position of the new owners would not be known until long after the sale had emerged from escrow.

Plans by the new owners, their identities still undisclosed, for a large parking lot covering at least half of The Desert Inn property, and located directly across from the parking district, were discolsed at the meeting by Nathanson.

"THEY PLAN TO USE 50 percent of the acreage for parking.

ELKS PLAN IMPRESSIVE FLAG DAY CEREMONIES

Palm Springs area residents and visitors were invited today to join with Elks Lodge 1905 in impressive ritualistic ceremony in observance of National Flag Day Tuesday, June 14, starting at 8 p.m. at the Elks Club auditorium.

The week of June 12 through 18 has been proclaimed by Mayor Florian Boyd as National Flag Week, with all Villagers urged to display their flags and attend the Elks Lodge program.

THE FLAG DAY service is an annual observance of the Order of Elks, as a demonstration of true loyalty and devotion to the Flag.

Father Michael R. O'Donohoe, pastor of St. Theresa's Catholic church, who was an Army chaplain during World War II, will be the featured speaker at the program Tuesday.

THE PROGRAM also includes solos by Violet Watson, "The Star Spangled Banner," "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," and "America the Beautiful"; a solo, "God Bless America" by Peg Rashall; introductory exercises by Exalted Ruler Robert Forsythe and other officers; prayer; history of the Flag; a dramatization by the Player-Stage Little Theatre group, directed by Martin Beck, and a song, "Auld Lang Syne," by the officers and members. Lois Lux will be accompanist.

In charge of arrangements is Bill Scharf, and assisting him are Jack Riordan and Nels Quist.

MAYOR BOYD'S official proclamation follows:

WHEREAS, the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House Association, Inc., is again sponsoring National Flag Week, June 12 through 18, and especially National Flag Day on June 14, and

WHEREAS, the local Elks Lodge is observing Flag Day with a patriotic program at its clubhouse at 8 p.m., June 14, now

THEREFORE, I, Florian G. Boyd, Mayor of the City of Palm Springs do hereby proclaim June 12 through 18 to be National Flag Week in the City of Palm Springs, and do urge all citizens to display their flags and to attend the Elks Lodge program June 14.

City Supports Air Pollution Control Board

City council Tuesday officially went on record in support of formation of a county air pollution control district, but with the condition that the district be empowered to establish regulations which could be enforced by law.

City planners earlier had adopted a similar resolution, and both will be submitted to county supervisors at a public hearing on the subject scheduled June 13 in Riverside.

It is expected that local officials will be represented at the public hearing .

LOSES BILLFOLD

Loss of a billfold containing $21 was reported to police Monday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Sorenson, 958 Mesquite.

SECOND CONTEST TO BE HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

A multi-colored rainbow with that fabled pot of gold may now await the first winner of the Miss Palm Springs elimination contest held in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi Tuesday night.

Miss Barbara DeVorzon, 20, beautiful young brunette, graduate of the Palm Springs high school and who was sponsored by Carlos Men's Shop, was selected by seven judges as the number one winner.

AND AMONG THE seven young and beautiful girls who appeared on the stage to vie for honors a tie developed in the votes cast by the judges between Pauline Meisterfield, sponsored by Ben Bronstein's Drive-in theater and Betty DiGrandi to be broken by popular applause of those present in the Starlite Room.

This resulted in Miss Linda DiGrandi, sponsored by her father who operates an upholstery and drapery shop on South Palm Canyon drive, to win second place and Miss Meisterfield to take third honors.

ROY RANDOLPH, who acted as the master of ceremonies quickly announced before all those present after the ballots and decisions were in, that the same girls who did not receive a nod from the seven judges picked at random last Tuesday night "should absolutely appear in the contest at the second elimination Tuesday night, June 14."

Randolph went on to declare that the appearance of all the girls who were present "is good experience for each and every one of them and the final consensus of the judges, and they will be new ones next Tuesday, may find one of the non-winners in the winner's spotlight."

IRWIN SCHUMAN provided beautiful and expensive prizes for each of the three winners Tuesday night and Bill Ander-

Record Million Dollar Budget Given Council

City council Tuesday evening received its first million dollar budget in the history of Palm Springs, together with the first request for a tax rate increase in five years.

The operating part of the budget amounts to $1,112,773, an increase of $154,717 over the 1954-55 figure of $958,056. The tax rate increase would be 2.1 cents, from $1.28 to $1.301 per $100 assessed valuation.

Complete details of the budget were published in the June 6 issue of The Desert Sun, and additional explanatory stories will appear before its adoption by council.

An informal public hearing at which time the public will be heard was set by city council for Tuesday evening, June 21, during its regular meeting.

Canyons Officially Closed for Summer Months

Palm and Andreas Canyons, owned by the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians, were officially closed to the public at the close of the regular day Tuesday.

During the summer months improvements in facilities will be effected.

Two Street Loading Zones Established

Two street loading zone areas were established by city council Tuesday evening, at 344 North Indian avenue, and on the north side of Tamarisk road east of Palm Canyon drive. The latter zone is an extension of a present area.

The changes were recommended by the police department and council's public safety committee.

Ravese Is First Swimmer to Cross Salton Sea Twice

Johnny Ravese on Sunday became the first person ever to swim the Salton Sea twice.

He didn't fulfill his objective though, that of breaking the four hours and 32 minutes record of Tom Parks, for the 10.5 mile crossing. The 17-year-old swimming star fell short of the mark by nine minutes, which was six minutes slower than his previous time of four hours 35 minutes.

Choppy water encountered after he was seven and a half miles out stopped him from attaining his goal. He was ahead of schedule up to that time, and according to observers was assured of a new record if the water had remained calm.

Ravese left the Salton Sea Yacht Club on Highway 111 at 7:30 a.m., and completed the crossing at Helen Burns' resort on Highway 99 shortly after noon. A gathering of about 75 friends and well-wishers were on the shore to await his ar-

17-Year-Old Youth Misses Record Try by Only Nine Minutes

JOHNNY RAVESE on Sunday became the first swimmer, either amateur or professional, to make the difficult Salton Sea crossing twice. He failed in his try to set a new record, missing Tom Parks mark of four hours 32 minutes by nine minutes. At left he is shown in the water about 7.5 miles out on his 10.5 mile swim. A row boat and two power boats accompanied him. In the center photo, just after he had finished his swim, Johnny is taking nourishment in the form of orange juice. Holding the jar is his father, John Ravese, at his immediate left is his mother, and in the left background is Mrs. Beatrice Stephens, of Cathedral City, a friend of the family. At right, John Ravese, left, proudly says, "That's my boy," with onlookers being, left to right, Wayland Reynolds, swimming coach of Palm Springs high school, Helen Burns, owner of the Salton Sea resort where the swim ended, and Coach Louis Carter, president of the National Junior Olympics. The 17-year-old youth plans to try for the record again next fall.

Thrifty Drug Starts 10-Day Birthday Anniversary Sale

Thrifty Drug Stores, particularly the one located on South Palm Canyon drive right here in Palm Springs started a 10-day long celebration of that organization's 26th birthday anniversary today.

The celebration in addition to an ice-cream and cake party for all employes here and throughout the entire chain of 131 Thrifty stores will be marked by a gigantic chainwide sale. The sale will continue through Saturday, June 18.

BUYERS FOR THE chain of stores have traveled the country over, it was announced, to secure special values to offer during the 10-day anniversary sale-celebration.

Wayne McFadin, thrilled with the sales record the store he manages here in Palm Springs has established, informed Bill Rahhall, promotion manager for The Desert Sun:

"Thrifty in Palm Springs has consistently shown bigger gross profit than any other store in the entire chain and that includes those that are located in metropolitan Los Angeles," McFadin said.

"It is my opinion that the success of this Palm Springs Thrifty Store is in a great part due to the consistent advertising campaign my company has carried on since its opening in The Desert Sun. I have found that your Palm Springs Advertiser also has aided in bringing customers to us from Joshua and all the way from Twenty-Nine Palms."

THE SPECIAL 26th birthday anniversary advertising campaign is now underway in all Thrifty Drug Stores, McFadin said. The Thrifty manager stressed over and over again the excellent assistance which The Desert Sun has provided in announcing the birthday sale to the many Desert Sun readers.

In addition to the many departmental specials such as vitamins, cosmetics, sundries, dry goods and candy, a complete assortment of vacation and outing needs are now featured at all Thrifty Drug Stores.

Photographic supplies, fishing and camping equipment, picnic supplies, beach toys, sporting goods, and water sports equipment are all included in the wide variety of items on display at special Birthday prices.

City Sales Tax Receipts Pass '54 Record Mark

Sales tax receipts in Palm Springs for the 1954-55 fiscal year have already surpassed the figure recorded last year, with one month left to go, City Treasurer Shelby Langford reports.

Receipts during May of this year were $32,488 and brought the year's total to $177,083. The complete total for the 1953-54 fiscal year was $164,598.

Total sales tax receipts collected by the city since it was first instituted in 1947 are $1,121,552.

The monthly reports are on a cash basis, and reflect taxable sales which occurred in previous months and quarters.

THRIFTY DRUG STORES in Palm Springs and throughout California are now observing their 26th anniversary with a 10-day store-wide offering of bargains to customers. Wayne McFadin, local manager, left, in showing the full page of money saving bargains which appears in this issue of The Desert Sun to Bill Rashall, promotion manager of The Desert Sun, expressed his appreciation for the great aid this newspaper has been in helping the local store achieve a position of leadership in gross sales among all stores in the chain.

son of Bernard Anderson will provide the winner, Miss DeVorzon, and the three or four succeeding winners a free photographic portrait.

Randolph stressed again and again that following the contest, which will ultimately result in the selection of Miss Palm Springs, the young women who appeared Tuesday night should appear again next Tuesday night.

And the winner of the finals may go on to win the title of Miss California at Del Mar and with a chance to win the title of Miss Universe.

ALONG THE WAY, it was pointed out, many of the Miss Universe contestants have won great opportunities with motion picture, TV and radio studios.

In addition to the three winners, other entrants at the first elimination contest were: Miss Lynn Wilson, sponsored by Thrifty Drug Store of Palm Springs; Kaybonnie Walden and Chillon Angell, Sunair Drive-in theater; Betty Woods sponsored by DiGrandi upholstery.

Resort Wear Manufacturer Leases Store

"Fashions Incorporated," one of the newest manufacturers of resort men's clothing, has leased from Mutual Enterprises, Inc., the old landmark location on Palm Canyon drive now occupied by Paul Grimm Art Gallery, Mutual President A. M. Liebling announces.

The lease provides for a display store 40 by 100 feet, ready to be occupied December 1, 1956, Grimm will move when his present lease expires September 1, 1956.

In commenting on the lease with "Fashions Incorporated," Liebling said: "We have been very fortunate to secure this tenant, who was attracted here by the nation-wide publicity Palm Springs has been receiving. Our plans call for the finest building, and the most modern store front possible. Glass will predominate in the building."

PARKING

and' 50 percent for the building area," Nathanson said. With this development, he continued, "spending of $170,000 for an area to park 118 cars is a waste of money."

It was continually stressed that the initial cost of establishing the parking district will not be borne by the taxpayers of Palm Springs, but by the property owners in the district. Under the proposal, the property owners will purchase the land, and then receive income from all the parking meters located thereon, and 25 percent of the revenue from all existing meters, for a period of 10 years, but not to exceed $100,000.

VIGOROUS PROTEST against the district's establishment, and personal charges against individuals that they were responsible for its formation, were made by Liebling in his appearance before council. Also appearing on his behalf was Attorney Benjamin Henderson.

Now that the district has been established, the city will continue action in its condemnation suit in superior court in Indio, to acquire the land involved but probably will not push the matter until the ordinance amendment is adopted which alleviates the parking requirement for property abutting parking districts.

UNEDITED

By BILL RASHALL

The season, that is the winter season of 1954-55 was one month late at least, in ending. This was the declaration of Hildy Crawford who is invited to more parties in the City of Palm Springs than any person that I personally know.

This fact is proved by the sale that took place at the Casual Aire. It didn't take place in April or May but in June. And according to Bob Morris and his lovely wife Jean, the place was jammed with bargain seekers. (Note: I could save Bob so much money if he'd only listen to me, but I know he won't. Woe is me!)

I got a tremendous bang at the great number of people who were present in the Chi Chi Starlite Room Tuesday nite at the first "Miss Universe" elimination contest, which is being promoted by The Desert Sun. Roy Randolph did a magnificent job as M.C.

And while we are on the subject of the Chi Chi ran into Charles Boyer to whom I talked for a few moments during the luncheon period. He was with a lovely blonde by the name of Miss E. Wright of Beverly Hills and their Palm Springs host and hostess.

Aside from my very pleasant and delightful conversation with Mr. Boyer there was a moment or two that tasted like vinegar although it was innocently imparted.

Mr. Boyer, the great lover of film dom, was delighted with his Summer trip to Palm Springs.

"I had to come to Palm Springs to find out how the weather is here in June," said Mr. Boyer. "I find that it is akin to Paris in the springtime. Why — it's delightful!"

His hostess kept on insisting that I give a copy of the picture which I snapped of Charles Boyer dining in the Chi Chi to a competitive publication by saying the following:

"Certainly you are going to give a copy of this picture to so and so," and I kept informing her that my employer, The Desert Sun, certainly would not agree to anything like that.

But that was not enough. On her way out of the Chi Chi she stopped by my table to inform me that the next time Mr. Charles Boyer comes to town she will see to it that a picture is taken and placed in this monthly publication. Well and good, I'd love it.

Sam Levin, owner of the fabulous Biltmore Hotel, who has set an example for all large hotel owners in Palm Springs by keeping hos hostelry open all Summer long, hosted a fabulous party at the Biltmore hotel Tuesday night. It followed the event at the Chi Chi Starlite Room, aforementioned, where he hosted a large party.

At the Chi Chi Miss Francoise, lovely French songstress, brought the house down with her rendition of French songs, and believe it or not, it's the first time I have ever heard a singer with a foreign accent, and particularly a female songstress, sing "Old Man River." And she was tremendous, terrific and highly dramatic in her delivery of this song usually sung by male singers. You can guess the type of voice she possesses. If you ever get the opportunity to hear her — don't miss it.

While we are on the subject of Sam Levin, he gave me one that was really a laugh. He has just returned from Chicago where he had a splendid time with many of The Biltmore hotel's Winter guests. These people informed him of the stories they had read in this paper about Sam's expected arrival in Chicago. And that was before he got there.

The Desert Sun certainly gets around.

Carnation Corner
BY June Goode
CARNATION HOME SERVICE DIRECTOR

I don't know what there is about Carnation Buttermilk — but it's the most marvelous thirst-quencher! When you're hot and sticky—when you have a craving for something tangy and refreshing and different—there's nothing, absolutely nothing, like Carnation Buttermilk. It has the old-fashioned churned flavor you love. And it makes you feel cool all over!

REAL COOL

Here are two new salad ideas, cool as a mountain lake:

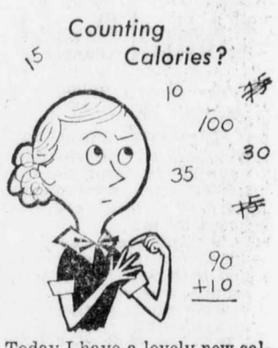
- Fresh vegetable plate of crisp carrot slices, chilled cooked asparagus (or cooked whole green beans), radish roses and sliced tomatoes.
- Fresh berries, banana slices, orange or grapefruit sections, and fresh grapes. On the side, a lettuce cup of Sour Cream or Carnation Cottage Cheese.

Both salads are oh-so-good with crackers, biscuits or thin toast slices — and a glass of chilled Carnation Buttermilk!

HINT FOR HOSTESSES

Before your next bridge party, clean soiled, sticky cards with spirits of camphor. Apply lightly with dabs of cotton. Wipe off and "polish."

Children are so right in liking Carnation Buttermilk! It has just as much protein, phosphorus and Vitamin B_2 (the "growth" vitamin) as regular whole milk. So do get your family into the Carnation Buttermilk habit. They'll enjoy it!



Today I have a lovely new salad dressing for you made with Carnation Buttermilk. A tablespoon of the average French dressing has 59 calories. But there are only 15 calories in each tablespoon of—

LOW-CALORIE
Buttermilk Dressing
(Makes about 1 cup)

1½ teaspoons sugar
1½ teaspoons dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
1½ teaspoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon onion salt
¼ teaspoon cayenne
1 egg
½ cup Carnation Buttermilk
¼ cup vinegar or lemon juice

Combine dry ingredients in upper part of double boiler over hot water. Add beaten egg and Carnation Buttermilk; stir until smooth. Cook over hot water until dressing begins to thicken. Add vinegar slowly; mix constantly. Remove from heat and chill before serving.

When you cook or bake — and the recipe says "buttermilk"— do use Carnation Buttermilk for extra-special results!

DUAL BIRTHDAYS found William Olsen, right, and Dick Mabrey, both past exalted rulers of the Elks Lodge here in Palm Springs, as the honored guests among more than 150 Elks, their wives and friends at a buffet dinner party in the main meeting room of the Elks Lodge.

Elks Honor Birthdays of Two Past Exalted Rulers

Two Past Exalted Rulers of Palm Springs Elks' Lodge, William M. Olsen and Dick Mabrey, were honored in a dual celebration of their birthday anniversaries Saturday night.

A delightful buffet dinner, followed by a floor show in the main hall of the Elks' Lodge, was enjoyed by more than 125 members of the lodge and their wives and friends.

Olsen, who was the first Exalted Ruler of the Palm Springs Elks Lodge, following its organization, was born on June 5 and Dick Mabrey, who followed him into that office, claims as his natal day June 4. Friends of the two decided to hold the joint birthday celebration on June 5.

Among those who entertained was Joe Wood, tenor, who was accompanied on the piano by Larry Sitter. Group singing also followed, with Sitter and Wood receiving a great ovation from among those present.

The Kiernan School of Dancing put on a floor show which drew considerable applause. Bob and Ruth Kiernan, old time vaudevillians, added a professional touch to the night's program with their tap and comedy dancing. The Desert Darlings, a group of young students at the dancing school brought the house down with their performances. The four were Janice Lee Wegner, Jeannie Hauger, Linda Shores and Pat Dermody. Karen Hausen did a soft shoe number and Nadine Watkins performed on the accordion.

Gifts and felicitations for the two honored guests featured the evening.

City Fills Two Specialist Posts

City Manager R. W. Peterson this week announced the employment of John Cronholm as a planning technician with the city planning department, and Edwin Kronst as an engineer with the department of public works.

Cronholm, who was an instructor this past year at Palm Valley School, was with the City of Fullerton planning department previously. He is the son of Frederick Cronholm, well known engineer, of Desert Hot Springs.

Kronst comes here from Boron, California, where he was an engineer with a mining company.

Used Car Missing, Believed Stolen

Theft of a used car from Palm Springs Lincoln-Mercury was reported to police by Leo Athans Monday.

The car was loaned to a local resident who is now on a trip to Texas, but was believed to have been returned prior to departure from the Village. Police are now checking with Texas authorities.

Grant, Lloyd Oppose Paving

Council Tuesday evening overruled protests of Cary Grant and Harold Lloyd Corporation relative to Assessment District No. 14, paving of Avenida Palmas, and ordered the work started. A prevailing rate of wage was also adopted.

Both protests were by letter. It was stated that Grant opposed the project as it would destroy the country atmosphere of the area. The protests covered 29.29 percent of the property in the area affected.

Exhaust

Starts Hay Truck Burning on Highway

Fire partially destroyed a truck-and-trailer load of hay on the highway east of Cabazon Tuesday morning, causing an estimated $500 damage to the hay and $50 damage to the truck, according to Division of Forestry reports.

Forestry units from Beaumont and from San Jacinto were called out when the fire was discovered. Sparks from the exhaust are believed to have started the blaze.

The truck and its load of hay were valued at about $12,000 by its owners, West Coast Hay and Grain company of Norwalk.

Hicks and Allred Given Indian Trail Contract

Hicks and Allred, Cathedral City contractors, were awarded the contract for the paving of Indian Trail, with their low bid being $10,184.90.

Only one other bid was received, from J&S Paving company, in the amount of $10,331.30.

Begole Favored for New County Executive Post

Deputy County Clerk Clay Begole, who has been clerk of the board of County Supervisors for the past eight years, was this week named to the office of county administrative assistant.

The office which has some of the functions of a county manager, carries a salary of $7800 a year, comparable to top-ranking county officials.

While the supervisors took no formal action at their Monday session, all five seemed agreed on a preference for Begole.

Sixty year old Begole has been a member of County Clerk Gordon Pequegnat's staff for 13 years and has a background of knowledge of county affairs that fits him for the post supervisors agreed. The appointment was made Tuesday.

The real major problem of the world today is neither military nor political nor economical nor ideological. Fundamentally it is an agricultural, a food problem. The answers lie in science and education.—Wheeler McMillen "Scientific Mgt Comes to the Farm," Think, 5-'55.

Radio Repeater Station to be Installed Here

Installation of a radio repeater station at the Palm Springs airport for use by police and fire cars is one of the items included in the 1955-56 budget for the City of Palm Springs.

A survey was recently conducted as to the percentage of coverage that the present system now offers, and it was discovered that coverage now is about 75 percent, according to City Manager R. W. Peterson.

The so-called "dead spots" are in the northerly area that is now in the city limits, the south area in the vicinity of Casitas del Monte, Tahquitz Estates, and the canyon approaches to the mountains to the west. Topography of these areas make it impossible to communicate from the mobile units to the station, and from unit to unit.

Tests to determine the proper location for the repeater station were made by George E. Paulin, communications engineer for Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc., and Harvey Platt, radio engineer for Riverside county, and resulted in selection of the airport site.

The repeater station located on the parachute building at the airport would give 100 percent coverage, Peterson said.

Value of the station was listed as follows: Normal communication, accidents and fires, injuries, increased coverage for walkie-talkie units on searches and rescues, in case of emergency in the city. It would permit the mobile units to communicate car-to-car from such remote places as Cabazon to Indio to the Palm Canyon Bench.

Cost of the total project, including all equipment and installation, was listed as $4,402.92.

"The problem of not having complete positive communication is ever increasing as the city grows," Peterson said, as he recommended that it be favorably considered and installed as soon as possible.

Arrest Follows Theft of Cash

Noah Gene Jeffery, 23, 476 North El Segundo, was arrested Saturday on a charge of taking $8 from the truck owned by Ramon Estrada, 750 East Arenas road, while the victim was purchasing ice.

Estrada earlier had made some purchases in a grocery store on Indian avenue, and had placed the change from a $10 bill on the floor of the truck cab while he was buying the ice.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Neither Rain Nor Hail ... Nor Broken Boxes!

Red Fowler, local R.F.D. mailman, got an English car—with a right-hand drive so he can stuff mailboxes from behind the wheel.

"It's great!" Red reports. "But it would work a lot better if all box holders would follow regulations. A mailbox should be 40 inches high, on the right of the road . . . within reaching distance from a car window. If one is knocked down, the owner should make repairs pronto."

Come to think of it, Red is pretty good about his obligations—delivering packages, supplying stamps, cashing money orders—saving us trips to the Post Office. Let's fix up those boxes so he can get his chores done fast.

From where I sit, obligations always work both ways. For instance, I figure that I'm obliged to respect your right to enjoy your favorite beverage—be it coffee, tea, beer, buttermilk or whatever. Why? Because I'd expect you to do the same for me. The Golden Rule should be followed "to the letter" by everyone.

"Mother of Palm Springs"

(Editor's Note: This is the second chapter in the current series, The Life Story of Nellie Coffman. The first chapter, which appeared in the June 6 issue of The Desert Sun, described her early life and how her family was connected with the hotel business for many years before she came to Palm Springs and started The Desert Inn.)

By LESLIE HARRIS

MRS. COFFMAN'S son Earl recalls how his mother first went to the mountain area now known as Idyllwild, in 1899, when she had just turned thirty-two, to recuperate from a spell of pneumonia. At that time Earl would have been about seven, George a few years older. After arriving at Strawberry Valley, as the region was then called, Mrs. Coffman sent to Santa Monica for her boys.

Earl recalls to this day their adventurous train trip to Hemet and the climb by stage up to the mile-high resort where was the Keen hotel, run by John and Mary Keen. An old picture of this building, with the occupants standing out in front, is owned by Idyllwild's distinguished poetess-writer, Mrs. Florence Churchill Casebeer, and reveals it as a very simple frame structure — almost primitive to our present eyes.

BUT MRS. CASEBEER, knowing Idyllwild history well, believes that even then Mrs. Coffman would have come in touch with some very distinguished and interesting people, already patronizing this area. She would have also seen three very impressive sawmills, from where the Southern Pacific took out thousands of railroad ties.

But Nellie Coffman saw more. Somehow she contrived to get up to a point in the San Jacinto Mountains from where she looked down for the first time across the great Colorado desert. For her, this point (Earl thinks she found it on a hiking trip with a group of companions) was a true Inspiration Point, wherever it was. From then on, Nellie Coffman was obsessed with the idea of visiting the desert, but it was almost ten years before she was able to do so.

WHAT WENT ON in her mind back at Santa Monica during that time is more important than what happened in her daily life. She passed, of course, from thirty-two to forty, raised two sons, and obviously expanded her horizons far beyond the limited confines of her surroundings.

Idyllwild had once been thought an ideal place for respiratory diseases, but medical thought was changing radically about this time. Harvey Cushing, in his famous "Life of Sir William Osler," shows how it was changing, quoting Sir William to the effect that "fresh air and sunshine are the essentials with which, in comparison, altitude is of secondary importance." (Also, higher altitudes like Idyllwild proved too cold for the fresh-air treatment.)

NELLIE N. COFFMAN at the age of 16.

NELLIE COFFMAN, living around doctors, must have thought a great deal about the things that the desert would offer people in search of health. She could have been thinking about her own family, but undoubtedly she was thinking of humanity in larger terms as well.

The desert, from all that she would have heard of it at that time, was both difficult of access and uncomfortable as a resting place. The McCallum adobe, often spoken of as the first white man's house, was a palace of those days; Dr. Welwood Murray took a few paying guests, but comfort was not one of the offerings.

KNOWING SOMETHING of these conditions, Mrs. Coffman felt a deep conviction (and I quote her son again) "that if people could be made comfortable on the desert, they would come to it in season just as they went to the mountains or the seashore." And there, undoubtedly, we have the cornerstone on which Palm Springs was established as a resort.

But when Mrs. Coffman first took Earl to the desert in December 1908, during the Christmas vacation (and now he is a young man of 15 or so) they made the long, cold late afternoon trip from the railroad station at Garnet (then Palm Springs station) to Dr. Murray's boarding house at Palm Springs on an open buckboard with no cushions and no robe (and not in a surrey, as a society columnist recently pictured it).

"WHEN WE ARRIVED," he recalls, "we sat down to a sickening meal of boiled mutton chops and boiled potatoes, obviously cooked, too, some hours before. We slept on cots in a tent-house. We went to our beds tired, cold, discouraged, and wishing we had never come . . . But when morning arrived and we saw the beautiful warm sunshine, we were convinced."

An old research bulletin of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce says that by the turn of the century "Palm Springs was becoming a thriving resort with more than ten buildings, a post office, and many seasonal visitors." Earl Coffman says that if these people had come they had also gone away, because on his arrival there were only six other guests at Dr. Murray's and but nine white people in the whole village. The word "thriving" therefore seems questionable, and for that matter, "resort," too.

THEN THE ORRS disposed of the hotel in Dallas and decided to try Denver, but when fall came they found it too cold (a story we have heard many times over from others) and went back to Dallas. Then came the period of the St. James Hotel, which Mrs. Edna Coffman says was succeeded by the Sutherland on the same site.

And somewhere in this period Nellie, at 18, was married to her first husband, George Roberson, in Dallas. Earl Coffman's half-brother, George Roberson, was the son of this marriage. Nellie and her husband came west to live in Los Angeles for a while and he died there, whereupon her father came and took her and her child back to Texas.

IT WAS ABOUT 1890 when the family moved to California, their thoughts broadening into larger things and a newer world. Mrs. Edna Coffman remembers Santa Monica as having fewer than 2,000 people at that time. Her father had the St. James Hotel for four years, then built the Atlantic, and later ran the Clarendon for its owners.

In 1907 the large white house was built and some courts nearby. Doubtless in its time this neighborhood was worthy of its wondrous location, and beautiful. Today, while Mrs. Edna Coffman no longer sees it, an obvious decadence has come. To her the freshness of the air is all that remains but this alone seems to cleanse and purify memory.

(Chapter Three of the life of Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman will appear in the June 13 issue of The Desert Sun.)

CHAMBER TO MEET

The Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce will meet at 8 p.m., Monday, at the Thousand Palms Community Chapel in Shangri-La Palms. This will be the last meeting for the Summer, according to President Dewey D. Wallace, and all members and other interested persons are urged to attend.

RECIPES WANTED

The advertisement solicitation has been completed for the Thousand Palms Mothers' Club Cookbook. All that is lacking in order to go to press is the real "meat" of the book—Recipes. A number of favorite recipes have been turned in by local housewives, but not nearly enough.

The Mothers' Club of the Thousand Palms school now again urges each local housewife to gather together one to four of her favorite recipes and send them to Mrs. Everett C. Willis in Shangri-La Palms, President of the Mothers' Club, woh is compiling this special cook book.

SCRAP BOOK

Watch for the forthcoming edition of the Desert Rat Scrap Book which is now at press and should hit the stands within another week or ten days. Harry Oliver, Editor and Publisher, has really gone "out of this world" for his fun and humor in this edition, which is his "Ghost Town Stories" edition and which contains tales by "Male and female Ghosts" as related to him at his Old Fort Oliver in Thousand Palms.

Incidentally, while in Los Angeles over the Memorial Day weekend, acquaintance was made of a very good friend of Oliver's, one Don Hicks of Toluca Lake, television actor and publicity man of television, radio and the screen (who has helped to build such stars as Roy Rogers, Gene Autry, and others).

Oliver and Hicks worked together about 25 years ago at Willett Studios, and have kept in close touch ever since.

CHASE SCHOOL GRADUATES

Danny Dunlap, David Francisco, Peter Jones, Paul Lawrence and Peter Thorne were the graduates receiving their diplomas in Eighth Grade graduation ceremonies at the Chase School near Thousand Palms on May 28 at 10:30 a. m.

Dunlap is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Dunlap of Thermal and Long Beach; Francisco, the son of Mrs. Ray Ford Bulloch of Arcadia; Jones, of Mr. Frank Jones and the late Mrs. Jones of Providence, Rhode Island; Lawrence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lawrence, Sr., of Woodland Hills; and Thorne, son of Mrs. Lucile Thorne of Claremont and Dr. Stephen E. Thorne of Fitchburg, Massachusetts.

Robert Lee Sharp II, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Sharp of Hollywood, was presented the Lions Club Citizenship Award. Making this presentation was Judge Eugene E. Therieau, president of the Palm Springs Lions.

The commencement speaker was Dr. Evarts Loomis, well known medical doctor and surgeon of Hemet, who is one of the trustees of the local Desert Educational Foundation. Dr. Loomis was introduced by Mrs. C. Thurston Chase, Jr., director of this School for younger boys. C. T. S. Keep, president of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation, co-publisher of Fortnight magazine and a brother of Mrs. Chase, also spoke to the graduates, their parents and their other guests.

Following the commencement program, luncheon was served at the school to the boys of the School, their families and other guests.

Among those in attendance from the Thousand Palms area were Mesdames Walter G. Bovee, Nova Gray, A. E. Nelson, Jack M. Singler, Marion L. White; Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Hess; and Miss Patricia Dyal.

THOUSAND PALMS SCHOOL

Thousand Palms School had a like number of girls and boys which it promoted at the end of this school term from its fifth grade to the sixth grade in the Palm Springs city school system for next year. These were Connie Contreras, Janet Wiley, Larry Henson and Jimmy Ross.

Connie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Contreras who live at nearby Chase Ranch; Janet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wiley who reside on nearby Ivey Ranch. Larry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cazzle Henson of Shangri-La Palms, and Jimmy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ross of the Bovee Ranch.

The youngsters of the school also bade a fond farewell, as did their parents and friends, to their teacher of this year, Mrs. Dale Schapansky, at the close of school. Mrs. Schapansky, who came to the school last September as Miss Dorothy Lange but who acquired her MRS. degree on Christmas Day, 1954, with her husband moved last Wednseday to Reedley, California, where they plan to make their home and where Mr. Schapansky will be associated in the food locker business with his father.

The pot-luck supper planned at the close of the term for all interested in the School had to be cancelled because of illness of many of the children. So, the Mothers' Club of the School honored the departing Schapanskys with a 'night as their guests at the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi in Palm Springs on Sunday, May 30.

PARTIES

It was "Happy Birthday, Gayle on Saturday afternoon, May 28, when Mr. and Mrs. Louis ("Jake") Klemas of Shangri-La Palms entertained at a party honoring their young daughter at the Jack Singler home in Shangri-La Palms. The little folk who enjoyed swimming in the Singler pool, the other fun and the refreshments of the afternoon included Sharon Fulton, Barry and Michael Cook, Steve and Lynn Willis, all of Shangri-La Palms; and Danny Haddock of Palm Springs.

And, on Thursday afternoon and evening, June 2, Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Singler of Shangri-La Palms honored their son, Philip, with an "End of School" party. His guests were Johnny Burnbaugh, Kingston Cole, Gregory Gazda, Jackie Rech, and Ronald Studebaker, all of Palm Springs and schoolmates of Philip at St. Theresa's. The Singlers were assisted in entertaining by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klemas and their young daughter Gayle, also of Shangri-La Palms. The youngsters enjoyed a swim in the Singler pool, then proceeded with their elders to Thousand Palms Oasis for a cook-out supper, after which they returned for another swim and dessert at the Singler home.

Red Cross Swim Next Thursday

Only one week remains for enrollment in the first Red Cross swimming class at the Palm Springs high school pool, which will start June 16.

Another class, also for 10 days, will start July 11.

Certified water safety instructors will be in charge of both programs.

The pool is open to the public, under a program sponsored jointly by the Palm Springs Unified School District and the city recreation department. Hours are from 2 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p. m., daily. Joe Kanya is director of pool activities.

I'Lee Bailey Named to Health Center Board

City council Tuesday evening confirmed the Welfare and Friendly Aid appointment of I'Lee Bailey to the Health Center Board, to replace Agnete Hansen, who resigned.

The term is for three years, starting July 1.

Death Cancels out Court Date for Miss Clark

Death this week cancelled out arraignment in court to answer grand theft charges against Miss Winifred J. Clark, 45, of Rancho Mirage, who died in an Indio hospital of injuries incurred in an auto accident.

This was just a few hours before she was due to appear in Los Angeles court with Harry T. Comstock, arraigned on six counts of grand theft involving $51,000 in the operation of finance companies in Long Beach and Beverly Hills. She was an employe of the Indio Credit Bureau.

She was the driver of a car which was involved in an intersection crash in Indio Friday night. She never regained consciousness after the crash which injured three other persons. Officers had cited her for going through a stop sign and for excessive speed.

Mrs. May Saas of Rancho Mirage, who was riding with Mrs. Clark received minor injuries. A pet monkey in the Clark car, was electrocuted when it darted up a power pole and grabbed a "hot wire."

Mrs. Barbara Schmid, driver of the other car, is secretary to the Coachella Valley County Water District board. Two of the four children in the car with her were injured.

LOSES WALLET

Loss of a wallet containing only personal identification was reported to police Saturday by Mrs. P. D. Lake, Fullerton.

MAYOR FLORIAN BOYD, left, was among the Village area golfers who defeated Ed Furgol in play on National Golf Day Saturday. Playing in the Desert Rat tournament at Tamarisk, Boyd had a net score of 68. Above, Boyd buys the $1 entry ticket from "Scorpie" Doyle, starter at Tamarisk.

Over 40 P.S. Area Golfers Beat Ed Furgol, Patty Berg

A large number of Villagers defeated the champions, Ed Furgol and Patty Berg, in National Golf Day competition Saturday at the three Village courses, O'Donnell Golf Club, Tamarisk Country Club and Thunderbird Country Club.

Among the winners at Tamarisk were: Mayor Florian Boyd, Dale Andreason, Frank Portnoy, Harpo Marx, Asher Levy, Ralph Peterson. J. J. Peterson, Louis Wagner, Ozzie Carpanzano, Todd Faulkner, Walter King, Sol Lesser and Elly Vines.

There were three winners at O'Donnell. Dr. C. H. Baldwin and Dr. B. H. Poliak defeating Furgol and Mrs. William Powell defeating Miss Berg. Dr. Baldwin, with handicap, had a 61.

Among winners at Thunderbird were: J. Ross Clark, Ken Evans, S. P. Manasse, Milt Hicks, Dr. L. Earle, Jim Welsh, George Barrett, Freeman Gosden, Glen Thomas, George Holstein, Phil Harris, Keith Nusbaum, Bart Prom, C. E. Needham, Arthur Bailey, Mrs. M. It is believed that 35,000 golfers throughout the nation won their "I Beat Ed Furgol" and "I Beat Patty Berg" medals.

Darling Hurls One-Hit 15 to 1 Win for Stars

Strebe Stars won their second game of the season Monday night, defeating the Junior Police 15 to 1 behind the one-hit pitching of Lando Darling.

The Stars exploded for 13 runs in the second inning, and outcome of the game was not in doubt after that. The Junior Police scored single runs in the last two innings.

Don Mason collected two of the six hits the Strebe Stars had, and Mike Rowe spoiled Darling's bid for a no-hitter with a safe blow in the fourth.

The Strebe Stars played errorless ball, and the Junior Police had seven errors.

rival.

THE YOUTH AGAIN had a remarkable recovery, and did not show any effects of the trip within a half hour after its completion.

Officials for the crossing were: Swim Coach Wayland Reynolds, of Palm Springs high school; Coach Louis H. Carter, of the Southern California Trophy company, and president of the National Junior Olympics; Glenn Gurley and Richard Stargant of Indio. Bill Knight was skipper of a power boat which was accompanying the youth, and Walter Kimberley of Palm Springs was at the oars of a row boat.

OTHERS ALONG were Prentiss deJesus and John Cunningham, classmates of Ravese, Fred Weigel of The Desert Sun, and Ray Carmassi, first person to swim the Salton Sea, who was flown here from San Francisco, by Johnny's father, John Ravese, as an inspirational factor.

Following the swim, Coach Carter termed the youth as the "best amateur swimmer in the world, and about the second or third best in either the professional or amateur class."

HELEN BURNS honored the youth at a luncheon party following the crossing, at which time he was presented a trophy by Carter. Several Hawaiian songs and dances featured the entertainment. Present was Wilma Walker, Miss Salton Sea of 1955.

Johnny has plans for another swim, possibly in October or November, when the water has become cooler. In the meantime, he is leaving for San Francisco July 5 to train with Eddie Ukini, noted Hawaiian coach, for the 1500 meter race in the Nationals to be held in Los Angeles during August.

Parking Meter Receipts Drop

Parking meter receipts during May dropped slightly below the figure recorded the same month last year, $1,698 to $2,049, City Treasurer Shelby Langford reports.

Total for the fiscal year to date is a new record for the city, $23,214, with one month left to go. The previous high was last year, $20,649.

Since the parking meters were installed in March of 1949, the city has collected a total of $121,225 in receipts.

During the summer months, June to October, the number of parking meters in operation is reduced, with coverage only in the center of the Village on Palm Canyon drive and adjacent streets.

New Recreation Post Approved

Employing of a Director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Palm Springs was approved by city council Tuesday evening, following the recommendation of the Park and Recreation Board, and the State of California Recreation Commission.

The commission, in its report on a recreational survey conducted here, recommended that a director be employed with the responsibility for the administration of the recreation services, management of the Polo Grounds, promotion of events of community and tourist interest, and operation and development of park and golf course facilities.

City Manager R. W. Peterson, in asking approval of council for employing a director, said that the office was previously established but was never filled.

CC Convention Aid Praised by Moving Group

California Moving and Storage Association this week praised Palm Springs as a convention city, and announced that the 1957 annual meeting will again be held in the Village.

The group held its 37th annual session at El Mirador Hotel this past spring.

The association's appreciation was expressed to all persons with whom they had contact in their three-day stay and the group said that the cooperation was unequalled in all the years the conventions have been held.

To quote Charles A. Woelfel, executive secretary, "The Wonderful assistance given me by Miss Roberta Nye, Chamber of Commerce secretary, will live with the history of the 1955 convention for many years. Without her, my task would certainly have been much harder. Miss Nye relieved me of many of the responsibilities that an executive secretary of any association is weighted with, and I might say that the next convention in 1957 will again be held at Palm Springs, and a good part of the credit of this decision must go to Miss Nye."

Hearing Set on Cattle Feed Yard

County planners will hold a public hearing on establishment of a cattle feed yard in the Palm Desert area at the county courthouse in Riverside at 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 14.

The feed yard would be located on property in W-2 (Watershed, Conservation and Recreation) zone, northerly of 44th avenue and between prolongation northerly of San Pablo avenue, in the Palm Desert area of the Cathedral City-Palm Desert district, in the unincorporated area of Riverside county.

Pertinent testimony regarding the application will be heard by the county planners at the public hearing, according to Tyler Suess, county planning director.

Three Zone Changes Approved by Council

Three zone changes were approved by city council Tuesday evening, following public hearings, and another was returned to the planning commission for further study.

Changes were approved for Desert Park Estates Tracts 1 to 4, Section 1, which provide for R2 and R3 along the major thoroughfare, with the rest being R1. Councilwoman Ruth Hardy opposed the move, basing her objection on the extension of R2 and R3 along the 80-foot street.

New zoning of R3 and R2 along the highway in Twin Palms Estates in Section 26 was approved unanimously, as was the establishment of R2 and R3 along McCallum Way requested by Sunmor Estates in Section 13. County Planner Tyler Suess appeared at the hearing to support the latter change.

All changes were recommended by the planning commission.

Action was deferred on rezoning of portions of Palm Valley Colony Lands in Section 19 from C1A to R1B until the planning commission gives further study to the possible use of two odd-shaped parcels in the area.

Beer Party Ends in Vandalism at High School Pool

Several youths held a beer-drinking and swimming party at the high school pool early Sunday morning, and ended the evening by causing damage to various facilities there.

Among their antics were the following.: Pulling an electric clock off the wall; throwing of rubber mats in the pool along with trash from a nearby trash can, beer cans, glass and old papers; yanking a pay phone out, and the tearing down of a painter's scaffold.

The clock was not damaged, but was merely pulled off the wall and set on the floor, as if they wanted to establish the time they were there, 2:50 a.m.

The boys attempted to remove the gate which leads to the grounds, but this was unsuccessful and they were forced to scale the fence. They also took wrenches from the pool filtering house, and attempted to steal gas from a gas tank which is used for school buses, but this too ended in failure as the pump is operated by electricity. The youths did siphon gas from a pick-up truck though.

Total damage, including man-hours needed for repair and clean-up, was estimated at between $50 and $75.

It is believed that three or four youths were responsible for the malicious mischief.

Trust in God Assures Protection, Preservation, is Lesson-Sermon Topic

"God the Preserver of Man" titles the Sunday lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches. The Golden Text is from Isaiah (43:2, 3), "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour."

Through the acceptance of spiritual revelation these promises of the Bible are in fulfillment today. Jesus says, as recorded by Matthew (6:33), "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

"It is the province of spiritual sense to govern man," affirms Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she writes, "The testimony of the corporeal senses cannot inform us what is real and what is delusive, but the revelations of Christian Science unlock the treasures of Truth" (pp. 206, 70.)

Mrs. Eiseman has been active in various capacities in the Christian Science movement for many years. A native of New York City, she is now a Christian Science practitioner in Boston. Her appointment was announced by The Christian Science Board of Directors. The term of office is for one year.

Prior to devoting her full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing, Mrs. Eiseman was very active on various philanthropic and civic boards. During World War II, she served on the Christian Science War Relief committee.

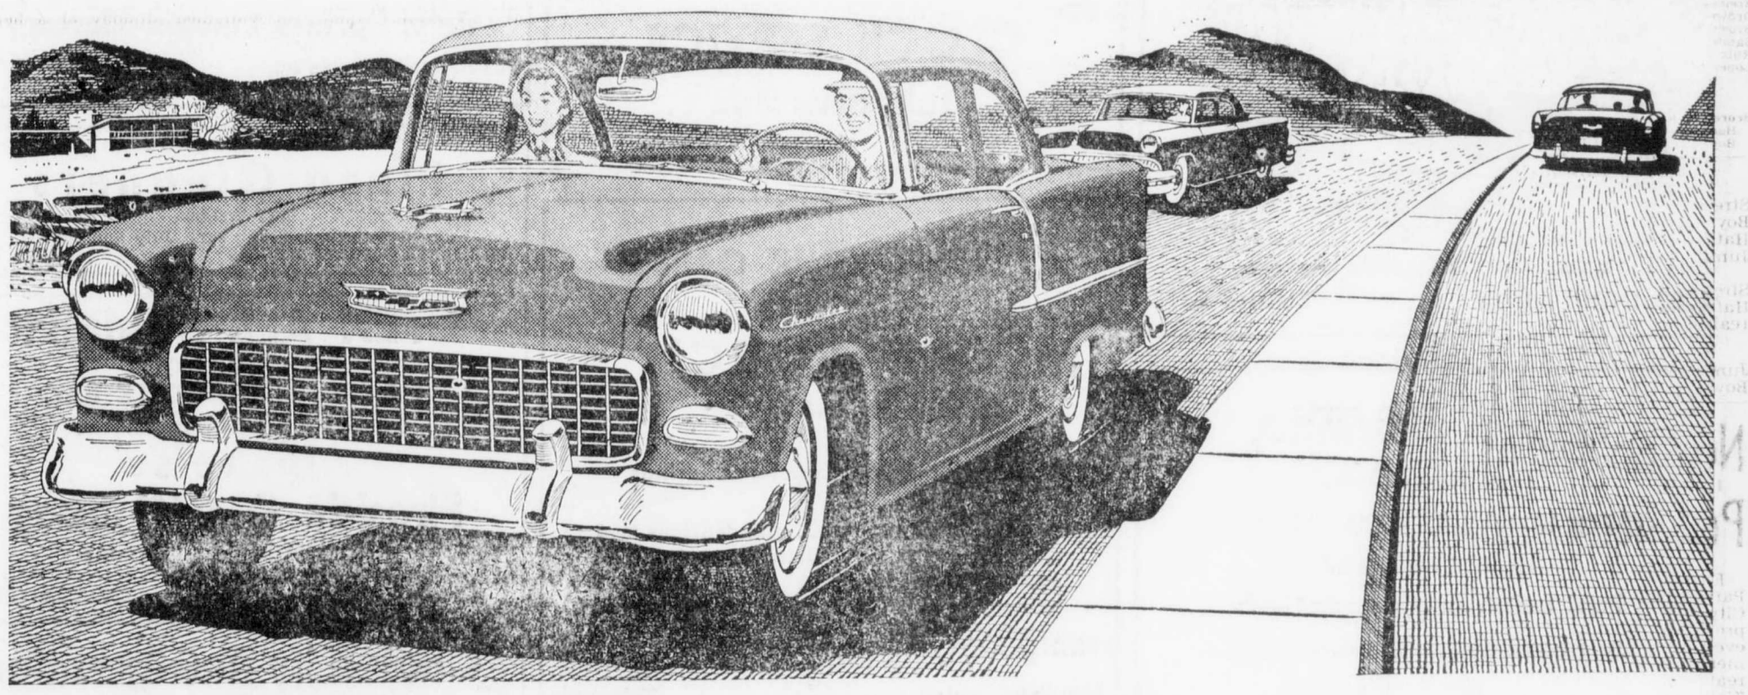
Don't argue with this baby!

All Chevrolet's competitors and most of the high-priced cars tried it recently in official NASCAR* trials—and took a licking!



Meet the champ! The new Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"—the most modern V8 on the road today.

You want facts, don't you? And not ours. Facts instead from an independent, outside source where the only things that count are who came in first, second, and so on. Here they are—

Daytona Beach. NASCAR Acceleration Tests Over Measured Mile From Standing Start. Chevrolet captured the 4 top positions in its class! 8 of the first 11! On a time basis it beat every high-priced car, too—but one!

Daytona Beach. NASCAR Straightaway Running. Open to cars delivered in Florida for $2,500 or less. Chevrolet captured the first two places. 7 out of the first 11 places!

Daytona Beach. NASCAR 2-Way Straightaway Running Over Measured Mile. Open to cars from 250 to 299 cu. in. displacement. Chevrolet captured 3 of the first 5 places! None of its major competition (what competition?) even finished "in the money"!

Columbia, S. C. NASCAR 100-Mile Race on half-mile track. Very tight turns. Chevrolet finished first! Way, way ahead—as in sales! With a new car, and no pit stops!

Fayetteville, N. C. NASCAR Late Model Event. After running the fastest qualifying round (with a new car) Chevrolet again finished first. Because of even tighter turns the driver chose to run the entire 150 laps in second gear! Yet no overheating or pit stops!

These facts you can't laugh off. Sales leader. Road leader. A crowning achievement of Chevrolet and General Motors. Try a Chevrolet . . . and live in a land of going-away where you win all the arguments! Soon, maybe?

BRIDE AND GROOM toast each other at the reception at the Palm Springs Biltmore which followed the wedding Sunday of Patricia Cummings and Robert Beck.

Beck-Cummings Marriage Solemnized on Sunday

White flowers and ribbons decorated Our Lady of Solitude Catholic Church Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Patricia Wynne Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings of 586 Calle Palo Fierro, and Robert W. Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Beck of Palm Springs and Newport Beach.

The young couple recited their vows before Monseigneur John Powers in front of a flower-decked altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Cahill gown of imported white organdy of ballet length. Embroidered lace trimmed the neckline of the off-the-shoulders gown. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiny white cap and she carried a wedding bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Peri Davis, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Misses Betty Durst, Gayle Dunn, Barbara Brothers, Jean Hicks, wore pale pink gowns, styled like the bride's and carried Colonial bouquets. Melissa Loynd, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

Howard Johnson was best man and the ushers were Don Howell, John Morgan, Mel Kelly and John Mann.

Joe Woods sang the wedding songs, with Larry Sitter at the organ.

The wedding reception was held in the Redwood Room at the Palm Springs Biltmore with around 200 guests in attendance. The four-tier wedding cake, decorated with bells, was served with champagne and finger sandwiches.

The bride attended St. Theresa School and Palm Springs high school and graduated from Immaculate Heart high school in Hollywood. This past year she has attended USC where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Whittier high school and USC, where he was a Phi Kappa Psi. He is associated in business with his father and will be in charge of the Newport Beach office.

Following a honeymoon motor trip up the coast, the newlyweds will be at home in Newport Beach.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

With so many items coming in about Villagers . . . leaving for Europe or the Orient . . . or other far-off places . . . it is amazing to see how many are still here and in circulation . . . The social whirl is a slow one . . . but as long as there are people here there are parties . . . Something new on the June calendar . . . is the fashion show luncheon at the Palm Springs Biltmore on Saturday . . . when professional models will present Peggy Hunt gowns . . . and swim wear by Rose Marie Reid . . . It's another indication that . . . the days when nothing happens between the end of May and the first of October . . . are gone forever . . .

Fun in June

June parties are always fun . . . and when you add Charles Boyer . . . the music of Francoise and Vin Riley . . . and a poolside buffet . . . you get a de luxe production . . .

Dorothy Gazda arrived from Chicago this past week . . . and had as her houseguests the charming French singer Francoise and her talented accompanist Vin Riley . . . who just completed an engagement at The Embers in Chicago . . . She asked a few friends in Friday night for an evening of music . . .

The first surprise was when Commander Tom White strolled in . . . He was out for a few days on business . . . Then Florence and Harold Murphy came by with the George Lovetts and their daughter Mrs. Gerald Riley . . . With them was Charles Boyer . . .It's the first time Boyer has been in the Village in several years . . . and he said he was here on business . . .

Francoise sang several songs for us . . . addressing some of the French numbers to Boyer . . . who seemed as impressed as the rest of us were . . . with the singer's charm and delightful voice . . .

We ate a buffet dinner out of doors . . . where the full moon that loomed large overhead . . . diminished to penny size in the pool . . . Gwen and Dr. John Costello were in from their ranch . . . and told me that their neighbors the James Malones left Friday . . . for an Oriental cruise aboard the President Polk . . . They'll be back in mid-September . . .

Mary Hurrell, who arrived with Graham Alexander . . . is re-modeling her house . . . and it must be drastic as she said they'd knocked the four walls out . . . to bring the outside inside . . .

Leo Athans told me that he has become a Village homeowner (1060 Granvia Valmonte) . . . and is expecting his family to join him here in mid-June . . . His wife Diana is a concert pianist who studied in Europe . . . and their livingroom has two grand pianos as their daughter Mary (she will be a Junior at Redlands University this fall) also plays . . . Another daughter Patricia Jean was married in Stockton Memorial Day to Bob Short . . . Leo's family remained in Stockton until he found a house . . .

Among others enjoying the pleasant evening were Sally and Culver Nichols . . . Joan McManus, Eleanor Hall . . . and Bernice Beekman, Ed Hogan and Ernest Crutcher . . .

Dr. Mace Gazda is expected to join his family here this week . . . .

Dream House

With the carpeting being laid this week . . . Frank and Melba Bennett expect to be settled into their new house on Camino del Mirasol . . . within the next fortnight . . . Extensive remodeling has transformed this into Melba's dream house . . .

The Bennetts are just back from San Francisco . . . where they attended the initial meeting of Republican leaders . . . making plans for the national convention to be held there in 1956 . . . Ron Button was there too . . . and Leonard Hall, chairman of the national committee, came out from Washington D. C. . . .

En route, the Bennetts stopped overnight in Lancaster . . . with their son Peter and his wife . . .

A postcard from Helen and Bill Reichel from Madrid . . . says that the hotel Castellena Hilton is like El Mirador . . . They had a wonderful trip over on the "Lizzy" . . . with Jim Ashman giving them a plane escort out of New York Harbor They loved Paris and Lisbon . . . and were to go from Madrid to Nice and then Italy . . .

The Arthur Baileys will close their home at Smoke Tree Ranch . . . and go North on June 27 . . . to spend the Summer months at their Palo Alto home . . .

Cliff Henderson and Ed McCoubrey leave around June 20 . . . for a two-month cruise of the Orient . . . This will be their third Summer trip together . . . One year they went to Europe . . . and last year to Vancouver . . .

Stephen and Beulah Burke left this week . . . to return to Yakima . . . after a pleasant stay here at their home on Chino drive . . . They expect to be in Yakima most of the Summer . . . supervising renovations on their hotel, The Donnelly . . . but will be back down to Palm Springs next season . . .

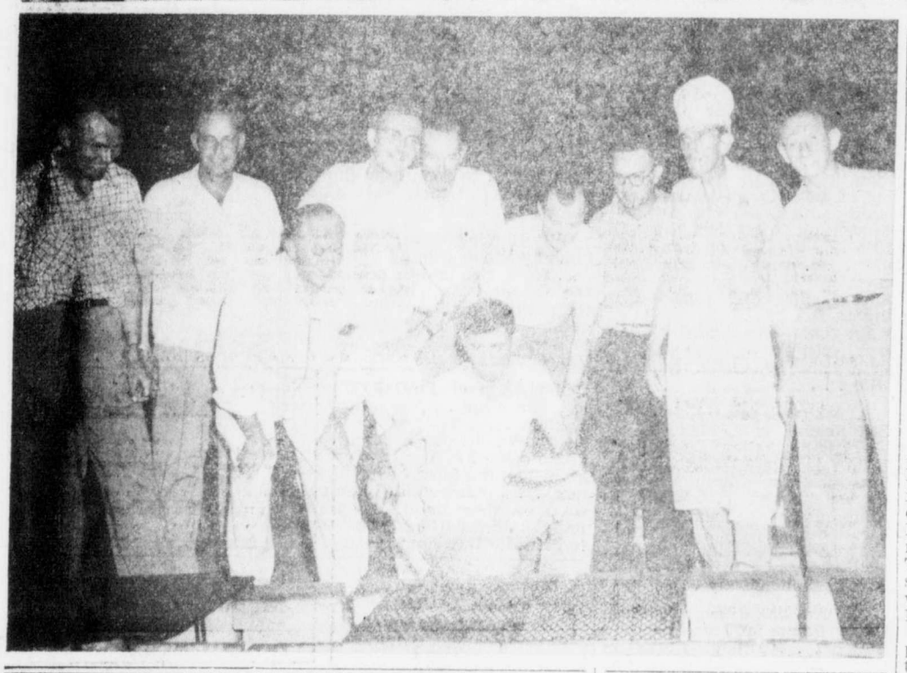
A CROWD of over 235 Masons and their families and friends attended the annual Steak Fry held in the Playhouse Patio on Saturday night. Worshipful Master Dr. William Aikin welcomed the guests and presented Jules De Vorzon, local realtor, as master of ceremonies. Jules, with his eukelele, lead the crowd in community singing and and sang several solos. He also played some violin selections. Picture on left, shows Bill Leonesio at the grill, surrounded by, left to right, Hiram Gordon, Joe Stuart, Jules De Vorzon, Clarence Brechlin (general chairman), Archie Long, Ken Brott, Bill Bronstein, Charles Burket and Jules Edelstein.



PlayerStage Announces Auditions

Palm Springs PlayerStage has issued a casting call for their next production "Night of January 16th," which goes into rehearsal soon for a scheduled Fourth of July weekend opening.

The new play is one of the most unusual ever written. It is a courtroom drama, with the jury picked from the audience to decide the fate of the defendant who is on trial for murder.

PlayerStage, the Village's own little theater group, is comprised of all local people and welcomes anyone interested in joining as actor or back stage technician. Co-Producers Martin Beck and Leo Krikorian announce.

"Night of January 16th" has a cast of 22 so there will be many roles open. Call 7280 for an appointment for an audition.

Susan Oliver is Graduated from Scripps

Miss Susan Oliver of Palm Springs, senior at Scripps College, will receive a bachelor of arts degree at Scripps' twenty-fifth commencement tomorrow.

The awarding of the degree, which climaxes a week of traditional commencement festivities and honors, will take place on the historic elm tree lawn of the Claremont campus.

At Scripps, Miss Oliver majored in psychology; she has been a member of the French Club and active in the College Chest ,part of Scripps' Service Organization. She also served as president of the senior class this past year.

Passing the traditional box of candy to her friends at Toll House revealed her engagement to Thomas Owen Moore, son of the Frederick Moores of Arcadia, recently.

Mrs. Pavny Surprised on Birthday

Another beautiful and exciting affair was the birthday party given by Mrs. Cecil Korngute at her home at 1555 Indian Trail Thursday evening as a surprise for Mrs. Lucille Pavny.

Tables set up beside the pool, were decorated with white shasta daisies and pink gladioli from the garden and candles of matching colors. The cake, which was also decorated in pink and white, was served with ice cream and coffee.

Mrs. Belle Floyd furnished the entertainment, playing her accordion to the piano accompaniment of Mr. Pavny. Everyone sang "Happy Birthday" to the surprised honoree and then joined in a songfest of old-time favorites.

Among the guests were: Pearl Kraft, Bea Jekyll, Betty Moore, Faye Irwin, Betty Riceman, Delpha Thompson, Zena Wittenburg, Candy St. George, and Carol Kirk. All are members of the National Emblem Club of which Mrs. Pavny is vice president.

The inspiration for the party came the evening before when Mrs. Korngute learned that Mrs. Pavny's birthday was the following day.

Farrell Attends Hornet Reunion

Mrs. Gilliland Honored at Cobalt Bomb Dedication

Elsinore Machris Gilliland, who gave the money to finance the cobalt "bomb" unit at City of Hope, was one of the honored guests when the unit was dedicated at Duarte this past week. Mrs. Gilliland's gift of $85,000 was made at the City of Hope dinner at the Racquet Club two years ago.

In a brief speech at the dedication ceremony, Mrs. Gilliland said, "The thing which prompted me to do all I could to aid City of Hope was the fact the medical center is free and nonsectarian. They do not ask who you are or what you believe. You need help, and City of Hope is there to give it."

Mrs. Gilliland, who is noted for her philanthropies, made a million dollar gift to City of Hope after she provided the funds for the cobalt "bomb."

The two and a half-ton cobalt teletherapy unit, housed in a small five-sided structure of heavy concrete, is believed by scientists to be the prototype which may open the way to low cost "bombs" to fight cancer, which will be within financial reach of all hospitals.

Victor M. Carter, City of Hope president, was master of ceremonies for the dedication which was attended by hundreds of members of City of Hope auxiliaries, civic and service groups.

Sen .Lister Hill of Alabama, chairman of the Senate committee on Labor and Public Welfare, spoke over a 3000-mile hookup from Washington, praising the City of Hope project and saying, "You . . . are demonstrating for all the world to note that the energy of the atom is destined to make this planet a better, healthier sphere of life than ever has been dreamed of by mankind."

Soroptimists Hear About City Budget

In an informal question-and-answer presentation, Melba Bennett and Shelby Langford, director of finance for the City of Palm Springs, discussed the budget and the proposed tax rate increase at Tuesday's luncheon meeting of Soroptimists International of Palm Springs in the Chi Chi Starlite Room.

Asked to outline how a budget is drawn up, Langford said that a budget is simply a plan prepared by the City Manager which estimates the revenue for the next fiscal year and tries to equalize that with the financial requirements. When the cost exceeds the revenue the city council has the choice of eliminating some of the proposed projects or raising the tax rate, as they are now considering, Langford said.

Last year's tax rate was $1.28 per $100 assessed valuation and the proposed rate is $1.301, which Langford estimated would mean about a $3 a year increase on a piece of property assessed at $10,000. He said that the tax rate is low for a city of this size. A $2,500,000 jump in assessed valuation has helped to keep it that way.

Mrs. Bennett brought up the matter of raising salaries of city employes and inquired what was the basis for the present salaries. The answer was that the present salary scale was drawn up on the basis of a survey made about 1949 and that salaries are now below average in other cities making it difficult to recruit personnel here for Fire and Police departments.

Commenting on this, Mrs. Bennett said that police and fire protection are of extreme importance in a resort town and that she thought the only complaints might come from people who do not understand why something is being done. Stressing the need for disseminating information she said "it makes for better Team Play . . . for Our Town."

The two speakers were presented by Lois Lux program chairman. President Lucille Johnson conducted the meeting.

DUSTLESS CEMENT PLANT IMPOSSIBLE—A storm of protest has arisen at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, over the proposal to establish a cement plant at nearby Port Everglades. The city commissioners here were about to grant approval for the establishment of the plant at the Port site on the assurance of the promoters that it would be unobjectionable to this resort area, when the residents became aware of the dust menace.

They didn't have to go far to find a good example of just how objectionable a cement plant can be to a populated area. Over at Tampa on Florida's west coast the residents have been plagued by cement dust for many years; efforts of the owners to reduce pollution of the air have been fruitless. They spent more than a million dollars for the finest equipment obtainable and then came to the conclusion that "control of clinker dust is an unsolvable problem." Residents of several fine subdivisions are reported to have given up hope, they are convinced that the cement company has done everything in its power to end the nuisance without success. Silicosis, a lung disease caused by breathing dust, is reported to have affected many people living in that area. Roofs of homes within five miles of the plant are covered with up to a quarter of an inch of dust at all times and owners find it impossible to sell their property.

The plant is reported to be objectionable as a dust menace as far as 10 miles away. Housewives complained that cement dust seeped into their homes and automobile owners said that it ruined the finishes of their cars. The City of Tampa was helpless to do anything about the problem because the plant was located outside the city limits.

The situation that has developed here just goes to show how fortunate we are in Palm Springs that efforts to build a cement plant north of the Village have been staved off through the efforts of the City of Palm Springs. I am more convinced than ever now that it would be absolutely impossible to avoid dust menace and that promises made by the promoters two or three years ago that machinery would be installed to prevent air pollution were absolutely worthless.

You just can't make cement without dust.

COLONEL SAM FORDYCE, president of the Cotton Belt Railroad, was once on an inspection trip when his special train came to a grinding halt. Stepping out on the platform, the Colonel found a gun jabbed into his ribs, while a gruff voice ordered "Stick 'em up!"

The Colonel recognized the voice. It was that of an old bandit named Shang Doland, whom the Colonel had saved from jail on two previous occasions. "Why, Shang," said the Colonel softly. "Ain't you ashamed to come over on the Cotton Belt and try to rob a road as poor as this one? Don't you know that folks with big bank rolls never ride the Cotton Belt? They use the Iron Mountain?"

The bandit was truly abashed. He pulled off his mask and said, "Colonel, I never would have held up this here special if I'd known it was yourn." He rounded up his accomplices, and off they galloped into the night. He took the Colonel's tip, too. Couple of night later he and his boys held up an Iron Mountain train out of Texarkana, and got away with the haul of a lifetime.

GIVE RIGHT-OF-WAY

Give, don't grab, the right-of-way.

Right-of-way grabbers caused one of every seven traffic accidents investigated by the California Highway Patrol during 1954 according to a statement released from Patrol headquarters by Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"The key to all right-of-way disputes is the word yield," Caldwell pointed out in commenting on the high percentage of collisions caused by failure to surrender right-of-way.

"The law always indicates which motorist must yield the right-of-way, allowing a driver to proceed ahead of another only after the other driver has yielded.

"Many drivers, either deliberately or because they are misinformed, assume that the right-of-way is granted to them legally and seem willing to defend it to the death if necessary. Sadly, death often occurs in these cases," the Commissioner said.

Caldwell explained that right-of-way violations present serious problems for enforcement officers and the best approach is for motorists to yield voluntarily whenever the possibility of conflict arises.

"Our officers have been instructed to remain especially alert for right-of-way violations in order to reduce the large number of right-of-way accidents," he cautioned

SPEED TAKES TOLL

Speeding motorists are involved in an average of one traffic accident every 21 minutes in the unincorporated areas of California.

This proof of the truth of the old adage "Haste Makes Waste" comes from the statistical analysis of traffic accidents made by the California Highway Patrol. The records show that the results of speed are often vicious, crumbling steel and crushing human bodies beyond recognition.

"If you could stand by and hear the reports of these tragic traffic collissions and sudden death come in over the wire, you would have a more realistic picture of the results of speeding in today's traffic," said Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"There is no reasonable excuse for haste in traffic when compared to the waste of life and limb," Caldwell continued. "The only solution to this needless slaughter is a continuing awareness of the dangers of speed and stricter obedience to the speed limits. The safer way is to control that urge to step on it. It is better to slow down and avoid death."

The Ford Motor Co's automatic engine plant produces twice as many engines as an old style plant, with 1/10th the manpower.

The Kidney Punch

With the advent of television, the American public have come to watch the great accomplishments as it were in the squared-off ring. Week after week the top bouts of the country are seen in the screen in one's home merely for the turning of the knob.

It is with the in-fighting, most of which occurs in the clinches, that we are concerned in this article. On the screen it is easily noted in the clinches that punching continues, and most of it is directed around the body of the opponent with the gloves striking in the kidney region.

What are the results of this constant pummeling over the kidneys? It is a simple law of physics that an impact to a solid substance is transmitted through it with the same intensity to another adjacent, closely lying body, and that is exactly what happens in the kidney punches. Injury to the kidneys does occur.

A recent study was made by two specialists in urology, in cooperation with the New York State Athletic Commission and professional boxers who fought at the Madison Square Garden and St. Nicholas Arena in New York City during 1952 and 1953.

It was definitely proved that in addition to an effect of the exercise there is also an effect of acute injury observed on examining the urine immediately after a fight. The degree of the injury and its severity correlates with the duration of the fight.

We might say at the beginning that ordinary exercise like playing basketball or track does not indicate the presence of blood, albumin or casts, due to this exercise alone. However, freshly voided specimens were taken on over 100 professional boxers in a routine pre-fight examination, and compared with specimens taken and analyses made immediately after the match.

Evidence of acute injury to the kidneys was shown by the presence of red blood cells, casts and a high percentage of albumin in the "after" urine. Again I repeat, exercise alone would not have caused this. Pathologically, significant amounts of red blood cells were found in the urine of 73 percent of the boxers, with casts in 26 percent. Albumin not present before the fight was found in the urine of 68 percent of the boxers after the bout.

In correlating the severity of kidney changes after the fight with such factors as the number of rounds fought, the estimated severity of blows to the kidney region, and the weight and over-all protective muscle mass of the boxers, the data showed the only correlative factor appears to be in the number of rounds fought. In other words, the longer the fight, the greater the punishment, the more severe the damage.

Blood in the urine was present in over 89 percent of those fighting over six rounds; in those fighting only one to six rounds, only 65 percent.

It as yet remains to be studied as to whether this repeated injury to the kidneys may not produce scar tissue and a decrease of kidney function as time passes.

What, if anything, can be done to protect the fighters from these serious, permanent damaging kidney changes? I doubt whether the boxers themselves would in their heyday be interested in protective or restrictive devices. Only with the passing of time, the coming on of age, and the suffering from ill health incidental to these things, will they look in retrospect.

(Dr. Goldberg is not practicing medicine at this time and is unable to answer correspondence.)

CHICAGO, Ill.
Sunday, June 5

Well, here I am. And, to quote from one of my favorite television comedians, there you are. Away back in Palm Springs, California.

La Salle street station. Usual turmoil. Red Caps running around. Giving instructions on how many bags each one will carry. Forget the exact formula because I had a hassle with my luggage.

Thought I was completely set at Bureau, Ill., Everything ready. All organized two hours ahead of time. Nothing to do but a final chit-chat with Percy before disembarking.

Then, at Englewood, just 15 minutes before I was due to land, Harold, the boy in charge of Car 40, approached me.

He had already had his engravings of George Washington on what Bill Rashall likes to refer to as that 'green stuff' so I wondered why he was so assiduously looking for me. I soon found out.

"Mister G," he said, "You left your shaving kit in your room."

And handed me a soggy mess wrapped in a Pullman towel. (Another one for my collection.)

So I looked for my Number B bag. The one in which I carry what I need for immediate use. It was buried on the vestibule beneath an immense assortment of luggage. We were crawling into the La Salle street station at the time. But Harold, plus George and two other white-coated boys with the assistance of Percy who has been my guardian on these trips for many years, dug into the piled up baggage on the platform and found that bag marked RFG. Harold squeezed in the soggy brush, etc., said "Thank you" again and I disembarked happy.

HINSDALE, ILL.
Still June 5, 1955

Well, here I am again. And there you still are.

Beautiful green country. Lots of water. In the rivers and from the skies. Lightning and thunder. All over the place.

At the station, into which I arrived exactly on time, (plug for the FSP, CRI&P, R. J. Samsel, local ticket agent, pro tem. Dale Hines, regular downtown agent, Jimmy Shea, George B. Hansen, all of whom seem to be interested in my comfort) there was son Jack, Dr. John S. Graetinger, to be exact, and two of the older grandsons, John Jr., alias Buzzy, and William, who for some odd reason, has been nicknamed Bill. The third and youngest, christened Allan but called Ace, being still a yearling had stayed at home.

It had taken two red caps to cart the A bag, the big one, off the train. But Buzzy, who is six, took it through the mess of rubble that is the station, and staggered manfully to the parking lot and the automobile, all by himself.

That rubble reminds me. Chicago is getting to be just like Los Angeles. It used to be quite a gag around the southland where every highway is always being torn up and detour signs grow everywhere, to say: "Southern California will be a great country when they get it finished."

Well, that's going on here, too. New freeways, buildings being demolished for rights of way, even this depot is being undermined. One of these days, they may have this country finished too. I don't know when.

WAUKEGAN, ILL.
June 7, 1955

Having nothing to write from here but being en route to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this is the last chance to get something in from Illinois. I do not believe in abbreviations as a rule, but I like those from this state. Because I feel so good and am really not ill.

MILWAUKEE, WIS.
June 7, 1955

Back to the place where I was born. Whistling 'Sentimental Journey" all of the way. Went to that spot which, long years ago, was a substantial residential district, But, in Milwaukee, as in all other cities, industry has been encroaching on the old places.

So, instead of a monument marking the spot, I found a grimy warehouse.

The old cream-brick place was gone.

But Milwaukee is still a great city. Unless you are dieting. Down on Wisconsin street at Raschie, I went for sauerfliesh mit kartofel klase. Out at Whitefish Bay, goulash. I was girthy when I left Palm Springs. I'll be girthier when I get back if this keeps up.

Even down on Wells street, at the Milwaukee Press club, they seemed to think I was underprivileged and kept shoving that No. 2 sandwich at me.

And I have still New Orleans and those Po-Boy sandwiches ahead!

Out to County Park, the Home of the Braves. But the way they are going in the National League, it's not the land of the free.

Tomorrow, back to Hinsdale and supervision of the B. B. & A Ry. (Buzzy, Billy and Ace) Just throwing switches.

At last Washington has got some brains. The city has been selected for headquarters of Phi Beta Kappa.—Changing Times.

A lot of young people these days seem to think that the 3 R's stand for Rah! Rah! Rah!—

The Voice of Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

WHEN I WAS a little girl my mother absolutely fascinated me. She always looked like nine million bucks. Her hair was always done beautifully, she loved hats and wore them with marvelous aplomb. Her bedroom looked and smelled like a garden. She was terribly feminine and seemed to revel in it. And not that I ever will — but I'd love to top her!

I also had a grandfather who was divine. His name was L. S. Jobe and he was quite a character. I think they'll still remember him in Springfield, Ohio. He lived up a storm and had a great time.

He ran everything from bars to bakeries and he'd sit up till the last customer went home, then he'd lock up and go over to the railroad station and chew the rag with the night clerk until the sun came up and the early morning express roared through Springfield.

A little of this has rubbed off on me because I'm usually chewing the rag at 4:00 a.m. myself—that is since I left Detroit and came to New York and entered the Greenwich Village School of Dramatics.

Then came the "Blue Jeans era!" Now don't let's knock blue jeans—especially if they fit well and you wear a divine shirt with a rhinestone here and there. They're great in their place.

But aside from the sheer excitement of dressing-up for your public or whatever for—it's rather nice to see a woman looking lovely. I think your petticoat should be a dream even if you are the only one who knows it. It makes me feel good to just know I'm all peaches and cream right down to the bare essentials.

I think a lot of people in my business are pretty insecure, myself included, and one of the ways they try to defeat it is to give the impression sometimes in their personal appearance that they just don't care. Well, I've got news for you . . . it doesn't help! For my money, insecurity, depression, etc., can be healed (if you have the price of admission—a fella, that is) not with blue jeans, sweat shirts and private classes in acting, but by way of (and you're going to hate me for this) El Morocco, sad songs at four a.m. and the pop of champagne cork.

Funny thing, all the greats in my profession look like nine million bucks sooner or later! How about Marlon Brando receiving his Academy Award—pretty snazzy, eh? And he was a very big blue jeans boy from way back.

Now let me tell you something about people. I think the taxi drivers in New York are the end! I got in a taxi only the other day and I was so happy I liked to bust. I looked at the permit the guy had stuck in his cab and we started.

"Well, Morris," I told him, "I've been in New York nine years, done stock, fought with my agent, stayed up late, screamed and hollered and done the whole magoo, and what do you know? This morning Paramount calls and they want me for a picture. How about that?"

You know what happened? That taxi driver stops off at P. J. Clarke's—we have a beer to celebrate and he turns out to be the brother-in-law of an actor I went to dramatic school with. Small world?

Maybe it's a little dangerous to live that way, but I just gotta talk to people. I really like them and I can't leave 'em alone.

Sometimes I think about David Belasco and the way he worked when he was busy making a star. It was all silence and mystery and they never gave an interview and you never saw them till the curtain went up and you never heard a peep out of them after the curtain went down.

Well, I respect what Mr. Belasco had in mind but times have changed. I'm a great believer in actresses being seen and heard on stage AND off, so whether it's an "intime" joint like Goldie's New York or the Champagne Room, just ask me—I'll sing!

Spread yourself around—for instance, I think it's a great thing to sit down and have dinner once in a while with a stamp collector. He's got something to say too about his stamp collection! But seriously, when you get in that glass house department and think you're pretty special that's when it is easiest for the flyin' glass to hit you real hard.

That's why I love going back to Detroit once in a while—just for a little meat and potatoes—as opposed to so much pheasant under glass.

But don't get me wrong. I love New York . . .and that's Elaine, brother.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

JOAN CRAWFORD'S STATEMENT to a friend at the Sonny Werblins' bon voyage party for her and bridegroom Al Steele: "Of course I'm devoted to my career. But if Al should say 'Joan, from now on you just be satisfied to be a wife — forget the career,' the way I feel I'd quit without a word." Then she added, "But Al won't say it — because he's a smart man." So P.S., after the honeymoon in Europe, Joan returns to Columbia to star in "The Way We Are" . . .

Mutual friends convinced Comedienne Betty Kean and husband, Producer Howard Hoyt, will straighten it out . . . The Madison Avenue boys are now affecting charcoal gray umbrellas . . . What kind of honeymoon are the Orson Welleses having? He took off for Spain for a picture—she went to Rome for some sightseeing . . .

All this talk about Joe and Marilyn deciding they were made for each other after all—but somehow I seem to see Joe around town most of the time with his pals and Marilyn is usually with the Milt Greenes. This is mad love? . . . Joan Blondell, now being courted ardently by Hollywood's Hal Hayes, tells friends she won't be rushed into marriage—because "this time, it's got to be right all the way. No more mistakes for me if I can help it" . . . Two gals seemed to be having a ball just talking to each other at the "Seventh Heaven" party at Harwyn's — Martha Raye and Imogene Coca—that is Martha was doing the yakking and Imogene the listening . . . Nick Prounis of the Versailles is back from his trip to Aspen Colorado, proudly displaying two camera shots. One of the 1200 pound bear he shot —the other of his brand new grandchild . . . Well, let's keep track of lovely Nancy Berg's beaux for the week — left to right: Phil Silvers, Jack Carter, Bill Williams, Jack Carter, an unidentified young gent —and again Jack Carter . . .

Not bad enuf they barred the film "Carmen Jones" in France because Bizet's music is not in public domain there, but now they've banned the record album. Result it's become the hottest commodity in the black market . . . Harry James has a new vocalist named Jilla Webb —her chief distinction, she's a dead ringer for Betty Grable . . . Greta Garbo and George Schlee sunning it out in Cannes have accepted Prince Rainier's bid to visit him at his palace in Monte Carlo . . . Irving Berlin and Irving Hoffman cancelled their trip to Miami Beach where they were to relax at Joe Schenck's manse when Schenck wired he was flying into New York to relax . . . We needn't have been so concerned about the death of Francis Renault going unnoticed. It was duly reported in the obituary columns, we learn. bloopers, too. Kermit Schafer has compiled a series of hilarious verbal goofs by some eminent lawyers (taking them right out of the court records) and is putting them out in an album of discs . . . Now comes the dog days for the theatre. A month from now, half of the current shows are doomed to be off the boards . . . The Duke of Kent and his girl friend, Margaret Wakefield, have been consistent patrons at the theatre in London currently housing, "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker." The reason is simple: Miss Wakefield's dad, Hugh Wakefield, is starring in the show . . .

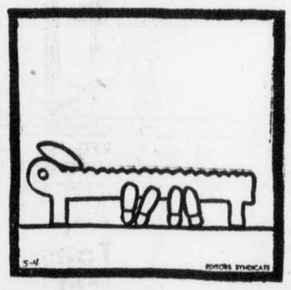
Droodles

By ROGER PRICE

"PSYCHIATRIST INTERVIEWING SHY PATIENT"



My Sister Thelma had a psychological problem when she was 11 years old. In those days we used to have a lot of company back home and every time strangers were in the parlor Thelma would sneak down the hall and poke her head into the room. On the end of a stick. It was unnerving and we would've sent her away to a Psychiatrist but Father wouldn't allow it. You see, Thelma had two big buck teeth and he liked to keep her around the house so he'd always have some place to open his beer cans. But today Thelma is perfectly adjusted. She never does anything eccentric. Just sits quietly in her trunk and makes Droodles. Nothing could be

FINDS HANDBAG
Finding of a handbag containing $2 in cash and identification of Mae Thuillard Kindall of Glendale, was reported to police Sunday by Mrs. Cassie Puffer of Beverly Hills.

Visitor Cites Improvement in Village Traffic Pattern

A definite improvement in the traffic pattern within the city of Palm Springs, comparing 1954 and 1955, was reported this week by Walt Woestman, columnist for National Speed Sport News, and frequent contributor to Speed Age Magazine and Car Life.

The improvement noted was from personal observation, Woestman said. At a certain arterial stop Woestman checked 1,000 cars during his visit here last May and of this number 10 percent made no attempt to stop. In his check at the same corner last week, he checked 800 cars and there were only three violations.

An interesting observation was that Woestman recognized one of the cars this year as being a violator of 1954.

He complimented the police on effecting such a "remarkable change."

Woestman has been a visitor here since 1924.

Interested in racing for many years, and particularly now as it benefits teen-agers, Woestman has been active in trying to promote a drag strip for them in Palm Springs.

TWO OLD MAIDS, with a penchant for poisoning lonely old men, carry comedy to unbelievable heights in the PlayerStage production of "Arsenic and Old Lace," which is being held over for additional performances on June 10, 11 and 12. Toasting each other, are Jean Patane on left and Ruth Keogh Nelson, who play the roles of the two old maids.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" is Held Over at PlayerStage

Rated the best show seen in Palm Springs in many a moon, Palm Springs PlayerStage production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" is being held over by popular demand for three more performances on the stage of the American Legion auditorium, this coming weekend Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 10, 11, 12. "Arsenic and Old Lace" played two consecutive weekends and drew such tremendous response and raves that Co-producers Martin Beck and Lee Krikorian are scheduling the additional performances to accommodate a great many requests.

This rollicking, laugh-packed comedy had a successful Broadway run and since has been known as the "Daddy of them all," in the modern, comedy category. The PlayerStage does their best job to date with "Arsenic and Old Lace." Backed by a stunning set, the players, all wonderfully cast, rollick through with exuberance and spontaneity that bounces the play right along through comedy sequences involving all the hilarious characters of the Brewster family. These include the two old maid aunts, whose pet charity is poisoning lonely old men and their two nephews, Jonathan and Teddy, who in turn are caricatures of Boris Karloff and Teddy Roosevelt.

It all adds up to a really lively, laugh-filled evening's entertainment by the very best group of resident actors ever assembled in the Palm Springs area.

Heading the cast are: Lee Krikorian, Kieran Pascall, Ruth Keogh Nelson, Jean Patane, John Kramer, Carl Christy, Martin Beck, Iz Singer, Laurie Nielson, Jack Nelson, Jay Oertle, Ernie Crutcher, and Robert Linskey.

Tickets are on sale at the Palm Springs Drug Company, Village Pharmacy, Ramon Drug, Palm Springs Music Company, the box office on performance night or phone 7280 or 2928.

Villagers Invited to Republican Party Saturday

The event, described as a "Riverside county Republican Roundup," will start at 6 p.m. Following the barbecue beef dinner, there will be a program of community singing and other entertainment.

Sponsors are the Young Republicans of the City of Riverside, and the Federated Women of Riverside county.

Officials in charge are: Dick Darling, general chairman; E. S. Dales, Young Republicans' chairman; Mrs. Helen Ritter, Women's chairman; Lewis Vanderzyl and Herbert Knight, grounds chairman; Betty Logan, ticket chairman, and Pat Martin, publicity chairman.

Want to watch the gas pumps go by?

It's wonderful what Variable Pitch Propellers do for getaway AND gas savings!

Buick SPECIAL 4-Door, 6-Passenger Riviera, Model 43

ANY airline pilot will tell you that one big reason for the modern plane's greatly increased cruising range aloft is the variable pitch propeller.

To get off the ground, of course, the pilot needs plenty of acceleration, for take-off and climb. So his propellers must "bite" into air at a certain angle for utmost performance.

But once the plane is at cruising altitude, great power acceleration is no longer needed — fuel efficiency is. So the pilot switches the pitch of his propeller blades to high-economy angle—and gets a lot more mileage from the fuel in his tanks.

That's why Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* is such a sensation everywhere.

For the same aviation principle that brings this two-way magic to the modern plane is now found in the propeller-like blades whirling in oil inside the Dynaflow unit.

Just by pressing the gas pedal way down, you switch the pitch and get instantaneous getaway response or safety-surge acceleration.

Just by easing up on the pedal, you change the pitch to high-economy angle — and get new and better gas mileage in all normal driving and cruising.

It's a spectacular and sensible achievement —this new Dynaflow Drive—a brand-new thrill and a brand-new thriftiness.

And with it goes the might of record-high V8 power—and the level luxury of Buick's all-coil-spring ride—and the spacious roominess of Buick's broad interiors—and the host of other advanced features that add to Buick's brimming value.

Come in and try what is very definitely the performance thrill of the year—and see for yourself why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs.

Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.*
